

REMEMBER LOT'S WIFE

Luke 17:32

Welcome to Concord this morning as we move a little deeper into our study of "Fatal Distractions". Today we are going to "Remember Lot's Wife". We might be prone to ignore this lady, except for Jesus' word of warning in Luke 17. He tied this woman to all who are distracted.

The story of Lot's wife is really the story of Lot. He was the nephew of Abraham and is referred to in many places in the Bible. Simon Peter referred to him as a righteous man (2 Peter 2:6-8). I don't think we would come to that conclusion otherwise.

Lot's _____. (Genesis 13)

Lot's _____. (Genesis 18)

Lot's _____. (Genesis 19)

The story of Lot's life is one of calamity and sorrow. It is what happens when we pitch our tent in the campground of the devil. The believer is never happy there, but in fact may settle there for a long time. The "pleasures of this world" are a fatal distraction. Remember Lot's wife!

We had a wonderful service last Sunday evening in the old worship center/youth aread/blue room. That will be our location for worship over these next few Sunday nights. Elijah Soritau will be our very special guest tonight. He is a good friend and Pastor from Romania. He serves as Vice President of Emanuel University in Oradea. You will be sorry if you miss tonight.

Remember Lot's wife!

Your Servant in Christ,
Bro. Monte
