

SAMSON: THE JUDGE WHOM GOD WOULD JUDGE

1 Corinthians 11:31

Over the past few weeks we have been dealing with “Fatal Distractions”. “Fatal Distractions” are those things our enemy uses to pull us off track, destroy our testimony and hinder our walk.

For every distraction of the devil there is an answer provided by our Heavenly Father. In fact, Jesus left us with a means of refocusing on Him. We call it the Lord’s Supper. The Lord’s Supper causes us to examine ourselves, confess our sins and refocus on Jesus as we remember Him. We are thankful for the opportunity to do this this morning.

Our distracted example today is found in the book of Judges. Samson judged Israel for 20 years, but he was a judge who could not judge himself. He spent his life unrestrained and undisciplined. He squandered the great gift he had been given and died in one last act of deliverance.

Samson lived a sensual lifestyle. He went from woman to woman and lost his power in the lap of Delilah. This morning we will consider these things about Samson.

The _____ of Samson.

The _____ of Samson.

The _____ of Samson.

The _____ of Samson.

The playboy’s payday is never what he imagines. This morning we are going to deal with this truth.

Thank you for joining us today.
