Lamentations 3:23

THE SEASONS OF THANKSGIVING

Lamentations 3:1, 22, 26; 5:19

Good morning and welcome to Concord on this first day of Thanksgiving week. There is no better place to be than gathered with God's people worshiping Him. We are glad you are here.

This morning I want to talk to you about "Seasons of Thanksgiving" from Lamentations chapter 3. These words were penned by Jeremiah the weeping prophet. He lived in one of the most difficult seasons in the life of his people. Even in the midst of trouble, he found reason to bless the name of the Lord God.

As he waited for Israel's deliverance and Messiah's coming, he proclaimed the faithfulness of God. "Great is thy faithfulness." This morning we will consider four "Seasons of Thanksgiving".

- I. The Season of _____.
- II. The Season of _____.
- III. The Season of _____.
- IV. The Season of _____.

I pray that this week will be a good season of Thanksgiving for you. As a congregation we have been mightily blessed by God. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing praises unto His name. We are resolved to not rush past this most important of days.

We will gather in the gymnasium tonight for a great time of fellowship and food. Our annual "chili bowl" event has become a favorite. It begins at 5:00 pm with judging and trivia. Come join us.

Betty and I extend to your our best Thanksgiving wishes. Thank you, Concord, for your love for the Lord's work and for us. It has been and continues to be a great place to serve. May God bless us all with a sense of gratitude.

Your Servant in Christ,
Bro. Monte
