

STANDING ON RESURRECTION GROUND 1 Corinthians 15

Welcome to worship at Concord on this wonderful Resurrection Day! By joining in worship today you are taking your place with billions of believers around the world proclaiming the good news, "He is risen!" He is risen indeed! It is great to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

Easter Sunday preaching is predictable. The preacher will be preaching about the resurrection. Today I am digging into one of the great chapters of resurrection truth — 1 Corinthians 15. All 58 verses proclaim that Jesus really was raised. It really does matter to us. We are "Standing on Resurrection Ground". May the Holy Spirit open our eyes to this truth.

- I. The _____ of Christ's Resurrection. (1-4)
- II. The _____ of Christ's Resurrection. (5-11)
- III. The _____ of Christ's Resurrection. (12-19)
- IV. The _____ of Christ's Resurrection. (20-26)
- V. The _____ of Christ's Resurrection. (27-49)
- VI. The _____ of our Resurrection. (50-58)

All of these great truths fit together to remind us that because He lives, we shall also live. It is a comfort to our souls.

This is also a great time to give thanks to so many people who have given much during these days. Some have helped distribute "Journey to the Cross" booklets. Others have faithfully invited. Our choir and orchestra have greatly blessed us. "An Evening with the Psalms" was a special night that will be long remembered. Many of you have read God's Word aloud standing at the pulpit. Thank you for gathering to worship and pray on Friday. Thank you, Concord.

Next Sunday when we gather we will be examining the ascension of Christ. Please join us to hear some more of the rest of the story.

Your Servant in Christ,
Bro. Monte
