

BLESS THIS HOUSE

Colossians 3:15-21

Thank you, thank you, thank you! Thanks be to our God! It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord! Come ye thankful people come! My heart is filled with thankfulness.

My heart really is filled with thankfulness. What a good God He has been to me. My thankfulness reaches to the heavens for I am indeed thankful for His blessings on me. My thankfulness reaches to my wife and family because I am a blessed man with much for which to be thankful.

My thankfulness reaches to the people of Concord. You have been so loving and kind to me and my family. I am grateful to serve the Lord here. Your wonderful provision and generosity is appreciated. I speak for the whole staff things Thanksgiving season and say, "Thank you, Concord."

This morning I turn toward the thankful family and I am preaching a simple prayer, "Bless This House". It is a plea that God would keep us well and safe and give us a "blessing". We begin in Colossians but, in fact, we will look at several scriptures having to do with being blessed.

I. The _____ of a Blessing.

II. The _____ of a Blessing.
