

THE NIGHT THAT CHANGED everything

ANTICIPATING A SAVIOR Galatians 4:4-5

Good morning and welcome to worship at Concord on this first day of December. God has blessed us with a wonderful season of Thanksgiving and thoughts are turning to Christmas. You will notice it today in both song and sermon.

This is one of the greatest times of the year to tell the wonderful story of Jesus. Our theme this season is "The Night That Changed Everything". I am preaching about this great change every Sunday moving toward Christmas. I want each message to proclaim the hope we have in Christ.

The Bible says that Jesus came into the world in "the fullness of time". That is an amazing way to phrase it. It points toward a definite appointed time. Everything had to be ready for "the" time to come. We can anticipate that the Savior would come on time. I want to talk about that very thing this morning.

- I. The _____ of The Time. (Galatians 4:4)
Beginning with Genesis 3:15, we are introduced to the movement of time toward the Savior.

- II. The _____ of The Time. (Galatians 4:4)
The time was _____.
Like a great performance about to begin, everything was in place.

- III. The _____ of The Time. (Luke 14:16-24)
Jesus presented an invitation that only He could give.

All things are now _____!
All people are _____!
All excuses are _____!

This invitation is to you today.

Thank you for joining us today. Let's be faithful to issue God's great invitation this Christmas season.

Your Servant in Christ,
Bro. Monte
