

Love God.
Love people.

FACING YOUR GIANT

1 Samuel 17

I cannot think of another Sunday when I have welcomed you by asking, "Did you notice the lion in the foyer?" Our ladies have just finished their "Lion Hearted" conference. I pray that many lives have been challenged and changed this weekend.

Many situations in life call for courage. There may be a lion in your path. There may be a giant in your way. David, as a youth, killed a lion and a bear. For that reason he knew that he could face Goliath. This morning I want to talk about the giants we face. Giants call for courage.

I. _____ Your Giant.

Suddenly a giant is in your path.

II. _____ Your Giant.

He faced discouragement.

He needed God to fight for him.

III. _____ Your Giant.

He was _____.

He was _____.

He was _____.

He _____.

What giants are you facing?

Your Servant in Christ,

Bro. Monte